2019 Membership Categories & Calculations

There are 2 main categories of membership: Full and Interested Parties.

The eligibility for membership of the Company as outlined in the Constitution is provided below.

Full membership

A not-for-profit organisation that provides child, youth and family welfare services in NSW or the ACT and who supports the purposes of the company. (Note 'member' refers only to an incorporated body).

Interested parties

There are 2 categories of 'interested parties', namely:

- (a) Individuals,
- (b) Organisations.

Any for-profit organisations, or individuals, with an interest in or a sympathy for the objects of the Company, and whose work focuses on child, youth and family welfare, including service providers, government departments, universities, tertiary education institutions, research institutions, advocacy groups, interest groups, and peak bodies, may apply to the Board to be an 'Interested Party'.

Important things to know:

- Membership fees are due on 1 January annually.
- Organisations must nominate a contact person as delegate. We suggest that this person is the CEO or Director. The delegate is the only person who can endorse the nomination of a candidate for the Board of ACWA. In addition, for 'full members' the delegate is the only person who can vote on behalf of the organisation and/or stand as a candidate for election to the Board of ACWA.
- It is the responsibility of the member to advise ACWA of any changes to their contact details, including those of the contact person.
- Organisations are asked to provide a copy of their annual report with the return of the membership form.

For members' entitlements and other information please refer to our website: <http://www.acwa.asn.au/about/membership>

Membership fee

The membership fee for organisations that apply for Full or Interested Party membership is based on the child, youth and family services revenue of the organisation for the previous financial year, 2017-2018.

Please provide a copy of your Financial Report for the 2017-2018 financial year.

Organisations are asked to provide a copy of their Annual Report and other supporting documentation with the membership form, as follows:
